

Senator Matt Brass
Senate District 28

Sen. Matt Brass, a Republican, was first elected in November 2016 to a seat in the Georgia Senate representing the 28th District which includes Coweta and Heard, as well as portions of Troup, Carroll and Fulton Counties.

Sen. Brass was raised in Newnan where he attended Newnan High School. After graduation, he joined the U.S. Navy, and upon completion of his service graduated from the University of Georgia. After UGA, Sen. Brass spent seven years as a golf club professional, then worked as a field representative and chief of staff for Congressman Lynn Westmoreland before his election to the Georgia Senate.

Sen. Brass currently serves as Chairman of the Banking and Financial Institutions Committee, Vice Chairman of the Regulated Industries and Utilities Committee, Vice Chairman of the Economic Development and Tourism Committee, an ex-officio member of the Education and Youth Committee, as well as Natural Resources and the Environment Committee. He is also a member of Rules.

Sen. Brass is active in his community where he served on several local boards including Communities in Schools-Coweta; Elevate, Leadership Coweta, Coweta Community Foundation, the Newnan-Coweta Habitat for Humanity, Newnan Rotary, and as a Deacon at Newnan Presbyterian Church. He was a founding member of Heard County FFA Alumni Association and is a member of American Legion Post 57.

Sen. Brass and his wife Maegan have been married since 2007 and have two sons, Freeman and Archie, and a daughter, Rinny.

May 2018 – Senate press Office